

Alexandria Sheriff's Office Bulletin

MARCH 2024

ARHA Honors Sheriff's Office as Community Champion

The Alexandria Redevelopment and Housing Authority (ARHA) presented Sheriff Sean Casey and Sergeant Victor Ignacio with the Community Champion Award for collaborating with them to support and improve the quality of life of their residents. ASO has enjoyed a long partnership with ARHA with deputies routinely participating in community events in ARHA neighborhoods. Recent engagement includes reading to students at the Ruby Tucker Center, escorting guests at the Winter Wonderland at Charles Houston, assisting at an archaeology program in Samuel Madden, and promoting public safety at National Night Out and at community cookouts in several neighborhoods.

Deputies Active in ACPS Events

Even with spring break starting it's already been a full month of outreach with ACPS! ASO was proud to be included in the Essential Workers Recognition Week celebration at Mount Vernon and deputies appreciated the special thank you from Lyles-Crouch. Deputies participated in career day activities at MacArthur and talked with Jefferson-Houston students about their future goals at the annual career day there. Several new liaison deputies also stopped by their assigned schools to visit with kids and check on general security. Hope everyone has a safe spring break and we'll see you in April!

Female Inmates Participate in Women's History Month Tea

Women's History Month is an ideal time to uplift and empower all women so on March 18, our Inmate Services team held a tea for women in custody. Eleven inmates enjoyed tea and breakfast sandwiches while listening to three guest speakers who shared informative and inspirational messages about wellness, safety, resilience and self-confidence. Attendees also received a folder full of materials on Women's History Month and significant women and contributions by women in U.S. history.

ASO Seeking Exhibitors for Reentry Resource Fair

April is Second Chance Month and on April 16, ASO is holding a reentry resource fair at the Adult Detention Center so our residents can learn about programs and services that may benefit them when they return to the community. Agencies, organizations, and companies offering services and employment opportunities for returned citizens are invited to participate by setting up information tables and talking with our residents who are eager for a second chance.

ASO Joins Court Partners for Expungement Clinic

On March 9, ASO participated in an expungement clinic at Charles Houston Recreation Center organized by the Alexandria Bar Association. Sheriff Casey joined Commonwealth's Attorney Bryan Porter and Clerk of Circuit Court Greg Parks in assisting more than 20 people seeking expungements. Deputies handled fingerprinting for petitioners and also provided Spanish translation. If you missed this event but want to learn more about the process, the Clerk's Office has information online.

